

140 AD

- Jan 1 Caligula enters 3rd Consulship (12 days)
- Early in yr - ① Caligula joins Rhine armies
- ② Caligula receives surrender of ADMINIUS at Channel
- ③ Ptolemy summoned to Rome

HO AD

Spring - Petronius ordered to place statue
in Temple at Jerusalem

May } Caligula receives 2nd senatorial delegation end of }
May } Caligula in vicinity of Rome

First meeting with Alexandria's representative

Summer - Caligula in Campania

Summer - Meeting with Herod Antipas

Return of Herod Agrippa to Rome

Ptolemy executed in Rome

Summer - Rebellion in Mauritania

Aug 31, 40 Entry into Rome and ovation

After Aug. 31 Second meeting with Alexander deputation imposition of new taxes in Rome

Late in 40 AD - Execution of suspected conspirators

40 AD \rightarrow 70 AD

Petra

King MALIK II ruled

C40-60

Mark's Gospel

Jan 1, 40 AD

$$(6664 - 1912)(365.25) = 1735668$$

Time

40AD

Jew Head

A legation of Jews of Egypt were lead by Philo to Rome.

C 40 AD.

Gen. Hand

Until C 40 AD PHILO wrote in Alexandria.

40 AD

1912 Dates J-BK

20 BC - 40? AD

The earliest of the Alexandrian
philosophers was PHILO JUDAEUS (or Philo the Jew) (about 20 BC - 40? AD) whose great object was to harmonize the philosophy of religion and whose work resulted in a sort of PANTHEISM permeated with Oriental doctrines

40 AD

4 Maccabees

Early 40 AD

Caligula arrived at the Rhine. The future emperor GABRIUS was installed as commander in Upper Germany in place of GABRIUS. There were operations against the Germans but no major victory.

Caligula marched to the English Channel coast and ordered his troops to gather seashells, but the expected invasion of Britain never materialized.

May 40AD.

Caligula

It was a bitter and disappointed emperor who arrived back in Rome. He insulted the Senate

died after 39 AD

HEROD ANTIPAS

Tetrarch of Galilee and Peraea,
Was the Herod who executed John the Baptist

Was ruling at time of Jesus' death.
AD. 39, CALIGULA banished Herod.

Final months of 40 AD

Caligula had lost support almost everywhere by his capriciousness and cruelty. Late in the year another conspiracy was uncovered and several more senators were executed.

C 40-60

Gospel According to Mark attributed to Mark, disciple of Peter.

Nero's father died. Nero was 3 yrs old.
His mother was exiled by Caligula to the tiny Pontian island off the Italian Coast.

40AD

DURANT

MAURETANIA

C 40-65

Gospel according to St. John.
written by him & or members of his school.

AD 40

CELTS

Birth of Julius Agricola

AD 40

CELTS

Caligula attempts to conquer
Britain

40-50AD

The Gospel of Matthew - the first of the synoptic Gospels was written by the apostle, St Matthew in the Aramaic language between 40 & 50 AD and translated into Greek sometime before 70 A.D.

40 AD

Asia

Approximate date of Kadphises I.
Indo-Scythian king at Kabul

After 3 years of Caligula's reign a conspiracy was formed to end this humiliating buffoonery. Caligula detected it and revenged himself by reign of terror enhanced by his morose joy in inflicting pain. The executioners were instructed to "kill his victims" by numerous slight wounds, so that they may feel that they are dying. He forced his saintly grandmother Antonia to kill herself.

Claudius, uncle of Caligula escaped death because he was, or pretended to be, an in magnificent book - sudden doct. He announced himself as a god. He enjoyed sitting on a throne in the Temple of Castor & Pollux

40AD

one of earliest churches (Christian) erected at Corinth

41AD - 54AD

CLAUDIUS, Emperor of Rome
dominated by his wives Succeeded by his son Nero

AD C40 - 103/104 FRONTINUS

Sextus Julius Frontinus had a distinguished career which included the governorship of Britain and the office of water commissioner of the city of Rome.

His 'Stratagemas', in 3 Books intended to illustrate principles of military science for army officers. Much more valuable is his De Aquis Romae (the water supply of Rome) in 2 books, a technical work on the aqueducts and pipes supplying the residents of

of Rome, written on the basis of his personal experience

AD C 40 - C 120 DIO CHRYSOSTOM

Dio Cocceianus Chrysostomus of Bithynia belonged to a wealthy provincial family.

Exiled by DOMITIAN from Italy & Bithynia
for 14 yrs, he later enjoyed the favor of Nerva, and Trajan. Much of his time was spent as a public figure in his native PRUSA.

of his voluminous writings, much is lost